CURRICULUM

ICS offers a comprehensive, college preparatory program with advanced course options. Coursework is designed to lay a solid academic, intellectual, and spiritual foundation. The academic year includes two semesters and a one-month TravelTerm across 178 instructional days. Seven class periods are offered per day.

SENIOR CAPSTONE THESIS

Students complete a 10 to 15-page comprehensive worldview thesis and conduct an oral presentation before a panel of faculty and administrators.

TRAVELTERM

A condensed January semester of international travel with intense, immersive study of the history, geography, culture, and religion of other countries, culminating with student research presented at a community-wide symposium.

LEADERSHIP INTERNSHIP

Juniors and Seniors can participate in internships that offer hands-on leadership experience in selected areas of interest.
